I	Updated the client about the status of the project – frontend is done (just the frontend and backend integration is left) Mobile application has been started, and general user login and registration have been built.	-	-
I	We would be proceeding with a web-app kind of thing for the mobile application, i.e. it would be kind of a wrapper over a website, which would be in form of a mobile app	-	-
I	We discussed about that it won't be possible to complete all the features of the project (As in SRS) within the given timeframe of the project.	-	-
D	We would go ahead with mainly the core feature of the project (As told by client) – the slot booking for the user application. The other features, including Wallet, etc would be	Client, Team	-

	additional and would be implemented based on timeline and on need basis. The wallet feature would be later re-implemented by the client's side based on third-party integration, so it could be done with the last priority.
D	We would just be placing placeholder for the places where we earlier had to integrate ROS API (Like add new robot or in the slot booking), due to current non-availability of the APIs.	Client	-

- Next meeting: As and when required.
